

ED5154: PRACTICUM: DELIVERING AN ONLINE COURSE

Course Description

This practicum supports participants as they implement delivery of the online course for teacher professional development that they designed in the ED5153 course. Participants will participate in a faculty-led semester-long online forum with other student facilitators and designers, which will explore critical issues in online course delivery. Topics the practicum will address include developing online activities, building an online learning community, assessment, and effective integration of multimedia elements in online courses.

Course Requirements

Participants are required to deliver an online course and participate in the ETLO Forum throughout the facilitation, posting at least eight times during that period. Participants are also required to submit a final product to the course instructor via email, with the following three items:

1. Required elements from delivering the online course,
2. Annotated postings from the Forum, and
3. A final reflective paper.

See page 4 of this document for additional details about the course requirements.
